MAXIMIZE YOUR SUBSCRIPTION

ISFIS is here to share our collective expertise with schools. Our mission is to elevate your output while lightening your workload. We recommend the following to maximize the benefit of your ISFIS Finance Subscription.

Whitelist our Emails - Add our email addresses to your “safe sender list” within your email program to ensure our communications never go to your spam folder. Our emails come from either *@isfis.net or *@iowaschoolfinance.com. And keep us updated with any contact changes at your district.

Request a login - To our www.IowaSchoolFinance.com website, for access to the vast quantity of available “subscriber only” content. Email service@iowaschoolfinance.com for assistance with logins or passwords.

Participate in our Webinars - Weekly during the legislative session, and periodically during the rest of the year. All webinars are complimentary to subscribers and recorded for access anytime from our Webinars webpage for subscribers.

Access our Tools – We have a suite of tools included with your subscription, available on our subscriber website, to help you better understand & explain school finance & other data-driven issues you deal with on a daily basis. Specifically, check out the Financial Analysis Comparison Tool (FACT) and the Comprehensive Financial Projection Model (CFPM).

Contact Us – We offer unlimited phone and email support to subscribers. We are available to answer your questions or offer expertise and advice. If we don’t know the answer, we probably know who does. Call, text, or email us; our personal contact information is on our website.
